NUMB. 2275

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 7. 1742.

To the Author of the DAILY GAZETTEER.

I R.

I see you sometimes give place to little Pieces of Poetry, I venture to send you the Inclosed. It was written on the Sight of a very fine Picture of a Person as far from being handsome as ever Woman thought her Rival, and yet there was such an Air of Likeness in the Features as sufficiently taught the Spectator for whom this Flattery was design'd.

I am, Sir, Yours, &c.

EPIGRAM.

TIS true some Likeness here we trace,
But better your's, than Celia's Face;
In this, Great Artist, sure you err;
What's handsome never can be—Her.
Yet with his Failing we dispense,
Whose Error is his Excellence.

Madrid, Sept. 15.

THE Sixteen Battalions which are intended to reinforce the Army of Don Philip in Savoy, have received Orders to continue their March for Barcelona, so as to be there by the 27th of this Month. This Body of Troops are all of them new cloth'd, and the Regiments perfectly compleat. We are extremely impatient here, to see what Measures the Duke de Montemar will take, whether he will actually return hither, as his Friends give out, or whether he will retire to Rome, or to some Place in France, till the Storm is a little blown over. His Spouse and Daughter labour incessantly to let Things right, but as yet to little Purpose; since their Majesties have issued an Order, forbidding him, in case he should land in Spain, to approach the Place of their Residence by 20 Leagues. He is charged with suffering his Army to be in want of all Things, notwithstanding that there was always in the Hands of the Treasurer of the Army at Genoa, not only their full Subsistence-Money, but Three Months Pay in Advance. Considering the Nature of this Charge, and the Reputation of the Officer against whom it is advanced, it may, perhaps, be a prudent and necessary Caution in the Ministers to hinder the Duke from approaching the Court; since otherwise, perhaps, he might acquit himself at their Expence, and make as good a Retreat in Spain, as even his Enemies allow he did in Italy. The young Infanta is dangerously ill of a Tertian Ague, and our Physicians have thought proper to prescribe the Bark, tho' as yet he is not Nine Months old.

Madina, Sept. 21. There have been some flying Reports here, as if his Sardinian Majesty had some Thoughts of dividing his Interest from those of the House of Austria. But the following extraordinary Commission, which has been register'd here since his Majesty's Departure, will put the Matter out of doubt, and at the same time furnish the World with a very extraordinary Precedent.

Charles Emanuel, by the Grace of God, King of Sardinia, Cyprus and Jerusalem, Duke of Savoy and Monterrat, &c. &c. Prince of Piedmont, &c. &c. Having by our Edict of the 5th of July last, publish'd thro' all the States of the Duke of Modena, confirm'd all the Councils, Magistrates, Podesta's, Judges, and other Officers, whom we found established in their Offices, till our Pleasure was farther known; and having since that time, as well on the Part of the Queen of Hungary as our own, taken all the necessary Precautions to satisfy ourselves as to the best Method for ordering the Affairs of the said Duchy, it appeared absolutely necessary to us, for the due Administration of Government, our speedy Departure especially consider'd, that the Direction of all Affairs should be put into the Hands of a single Person, empower'd to act in all Cases according to certain Instructions to him deliver'd: Being therefore inform'd that Count Bertrand Christini is endowed with all the Qualities requisite to render a Person worthy of so important a Post, and knowing likewise that he has given full Proofs of this in the Execution of several Commissions, with which he has been honoured by the Queen of Hungary, in whose Service he is at present Podesta of the City of Placentia. Moved by these Causes, of our own certain Knowledge, as well as by the Advice of the Count de Traun,

Field-Marshal and Commander in Chief of her Majesty's Forces in Italy, we have chosen, created, constituted, and appointed, and by these Presents choose, create, constitute, and depute, the before-mentioned Bertrand Christiani Administrator-General of the Duchies of Modena, Reggio, Mirandola, and all the Territories depending on them, &c.

Hague, Oct. 11. Agreeable to the Resolution of the States-General of the 27th of last Month, the Council of State have enter'd into the Measures taken in 1708, for bringing Troops into the Field, in order to form a Report to their High Mightinesses at their next Meeting. It is thought, that this Examination was chiefly intended to gain Time, that the States may receive fuller Information from the Turn that Affairs are like to take in Bohemia; in Consequence of which they will take their Measures, and either act more vigorously, or with the same Caution which they have hitherto done.

There are private Letters from Frankfort which say, that M. Maillebois has made some Propositions of Peace to the Grand Duke, but that it was not believ'd this would have the desired Effect of procuring a Cessation of Arms.

Application having been made to the Right Hon. the Lords of the Admiralty in relation to the Queen of Portugal, Capt. Dr. BATEMAN'S Original and ONLY TRUE Wholesale and Retail WAREHOUSE at the Printing-Office, facing the South Door of Bow-Church, the Lower End of the Church-Yard, from Cheap-side, LONDON.

THE Daily Success which has constantly attended the Taking Dr. BATEMAN'S PECTORAL DROPS, in the several Distempers of Colds, Coughs, Pains in the Breast, Limbs, and Joints, has gain'd them so universal a Character, that few Families care to be without them in their Houses. Besides the Distempers above-mentioned, there is no one Medicine, since the Discovery of the Art of Physick, that will give a Speedier Relief and Ease in all Rheumatick Pains, Gout, Stone, Gravel, Cholick, Fluxes, &c. Innumerable Instances might be given of the Happy Effects thereof, but we chuse to refer to a Book, call'd, Of Short Treatise of the Virtues of Dr. BATEMAN'S PECTORAL DROPS, given Gratis, at the Warehouse above-said; where all Shop-keepers, &c. in any City, Town, or Village, where these Drops are not already Sold, may be supplied, with good Allowance to sell again, by Directing or Sending to the PATENTEE,

BENJAMIN OKELL,
Wm. and CLERK DICEY.

The Surprising Encouragement, which by constant Success, these most Valuable Drops have, for upwards of Twenty Years, met with, not only in Great Britain and Ireland, but in all Parts of the West-Indies, and other Foreign Countries; has lately induced several mean and mercenary Pretenders to Counterfeit them; and by imitating our Seal, Bill of Directions, and Show-Boards, with our Method of Advertising, as near as they can or dare to do, without making them the same; thereby impose their dangerous Compositions upon the unwary and credulous Shop-keepers both in Town and Country, for the True and Genuine Sort.

The PATENTEE and Company therefore, in Gratitude for the universal good Reception they have so long met with, and for the Safety of those who for the future may be desirous of using the same, think themselves absolutely obliged to give this necessary Caution.

Which they earnestly request may be observed,

THAT the Bottle they Buy is not only Sealed with the Boar's Head, but has also these Words round it, BY THE KING'S PATENT, as in the Margin; and also that the Names of the PATENTEE, BENJAMIN OKELL, William and Clerk Dicey, be in the Bill of Directions given with each Bottle; without which you may be assur'd it is a notorious Counterfeit, and may be of the most dangerous Consequence.

N.B. That these Drops are also Sold Retail (as well as Wholesale) at the Warehouse aforesaid, at One Shilling the Bottle, containing three Doses.
